MOTION OF CEDARBROOK UTILITIES, LLC, FOR FULL INTERVENTION

Comes Cedarbrook Utilities, LLC, by counsel, and pursuant to 807 KAR 5:001, Section 3,(8), hereby submits its motion for full intervention in the above-styled action. The above-styled proceeding is to determine the proper rate to be charged to the customers of the Cedarbrook subdivision wastewater treatment plant ("WWTP"), which is currently owned by R. A. Williams Construction Company, Inc ("R.A. Williams"). Cedarbrook Utilities, LLC and R. A. Williams have entered into a Letter of Intent providing for the transfer of the Cedarbrook subdivision WWTP to Cedarbrook Utilities, LLC, subject to the approval of the Public Service Commission ("Commission"). A Joint Application for the Transfer of the Cedarbrook subdivision WWTP to Cedarbrook Utilities, LLC is currently pending before the Commission (See Case No. 2008-00040). If the Commission approves the Joint Application for Transfer, then Cedarbrook Utilities, LLC will have a direct interest in the rate approved by the Commission in the above-styled action, as it will be required to operate the subject WWTP utilizing rate revenue.
